This suspension will be served at the same time as the suspension imposed by the Colorado Supreme Court, meaning the suspension is and was effective August 11, 2006; and it is further

ORDERED that, pursuant to Rule 26 of the Disciplinary Code for the Wyoming State Bar, Timothy J. Judson shall reimburse the Wyoming State Bar the amount of $87.87, representing the costs incurred in handling this matter, as well as pay an administrative fee of $500.00. REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION FOR RECIPROCAL DISCIPLINE

The Board of Professional Responsibility makes the following report and recommendation for reciprocal discipline pursuant to Section 20, with its findings of fact, conclusions of law, and recommendation to the Supreme Court of Wyoming:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Timothy J. Judson is currently a member of the Wyoming State Bar on active status and has been since 1974.
2. On July 12, 2006, the Supreme Court of the State of Colorado entered its "Order Approving Conditional Admission of Misconduct and Imposing Sanctions Pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.22", which order suspended Timothy J. Judson from the practice of law in the state of Colorado for a period of one year and one day, with six-months served and the remaining six-months stayed upon the successful completion of a three-year period of probation with conditions. A copy of such Order is attached hereto.
3. Mr. Judson has not appealed or otherwise challenged the Order described in paragraph two above and is currently complying with the terms of that order.

4. At the time of the entry of the Order referred to in paragraph two above, Mr. Judson was a resident of the State of Colorado and practiced law in Colorado.

5. On August 17, 2006, Bar Counsel filed a "Recommendation for Reciprocal Discipline" In the Matter of Timothy J. Judson, WSB Attorney no. 5-1367, Respondent Docket No. 2006-14 Before the Board of Professional Responsibility, Wyoming State Bar, State of Wyoming, recommending pursuant to Rule 20(a) of the Disciplinary Code, that the Board of Professional Responsibility impose the same disciplinary sanction on Timothy J. Judson as imposed by the Supreme Court of Colorado in its "Order Approving Conditional Admission of Misconduct and Imposing Sanctions Pursuant to C.R.C.P. 251.22."

6. On September 7, 2006, The Board of Professional Responsibility entered its "Order to Show Cause" why the Board of Professional Responsibility should not adopt the recommendation of Bar Counsel. By agreement between Bar Counsel and Respondent, the time for response to that Order was extended until January 12, 2007, at which time Respondent filed his "Response to Order to Show Cause" with the Board of Professional Responsibility.

7. Pursuant to Rule 16(c), Disciplinary Code of the Wyoming State Bar, the parties stipulate that the recommendation of Bar Counsel to the imposition of the same discipline imposed by the Colorado Supreme Court is appropriate public discipline as required by Rule 20, Disciplinary Rules of the Wyoming.

8. Respondent is not now practicing law in Wyoming or any other state.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

9. Pursuant to the Stipulation between Bar Counsel and Respondent, through his counsel, and Disciplinary Code Section 20, it is appropriate to recommend to the Wyoming Supreme Court that reciprocal discipline be ordered in this case.

RECOMMENDATION TO THE SUPREME COURT OF WYOMING

10. It is hereby recommended that this Court:
- a. suspend Timothy J. Judson from the practice of law in the state of Wyoming for a period of one year and one day, with six-months served and the remaining six-months stayed upon the successful completion of a three-year period of probation with conditions. This suspension will be served at the same time as the Colorado Order which was effective 11 August 2006.
 - b. Require Respondent to reimburse the Wyoming State Bar for the costs of handling this matter in the amount of $200.00 and pay the administrative fee of $500.00 no later than 1 January 2008.

This decision is unanimously made by a quorum of the Board of Professional Responsibility. It is therefore so recommended May 15, 2007.
